

Engagement CIVIC FORUMS

2009-2010 GCU Empowerment for Georgia Youth (High School)

Why Us?

Georgia Close Up is a nonpartisan, nonprofit educational organization, which encourages responsible participation in the democratic process through educational programs in government and citizenship. Georgia Close Up is committed to developing new and better ways for young people, teachers, and citizens of all ages to gain a practical understanding of public policy. They learn how this affects their lives and in turn how they can effect change.

What's Next for High School ?

Conflict Resolution Symposium @ the Martin Luther King Center

Date: November 18-19, 2009

Deadline: October 20, 2009

Objective: Examine specifically Dr. Martin Luther King's Steps and Principals to resolving conflicts in a responsible and peaceful way. Use real life case studies of social, political and religious conflicts from around the nation and around the globe to discuss hot issues with separate tracks.

2010 Youth Legislative Conferences @ the GA State Capitol

Date: March 2-4, 2010

Deadline: November 20, 2009

Objective: Meet the movers and shakers of state government and learn to lobby for your favorite bills before they are voted on in the House and Senate. Emphasis will be placed on deciphering state legislature processes. Offer student panels and debates on the hot issues of the legislature.

Youth Health Conference @ the Emory University Rollins School of Public Health and the CDC

Date: March 10-11, 2010

Deadline: January 22, 2010

Objective: Explore the role and responsibility that the Center for Disease Control has regarding today's evolving public health concerns and discover career choices. Focus on international concerns in public health. Hear from experts about such topics as biological terrorism and newly-emerging diseases in the field of epidemiology.
